Head Teacher's Corner

Welcome to our latest edition of our school newsletter. Keep an eye on the calendars, as we update them routinely. Parents' Evening is coming up soon, and this term we're trialling a new approach based on your feedback. It will be held on our INSET day – Monday 3rd November – between 1pm and 7pm. Please keep your eyes open for a ParentMail for details of how to sign up. Finally, my Class Dojo account is not working properly. I can see messages are coming in, but I can't open them or tell who they're from. If you need to get in touch, please email the school office. Mr Shenton

World Mental Health Day

Today is Mental Health Awareness Day and our friends at DOSE MAGAZINE have created a free Resilience Toolkit Workbook designed to help children understand and take control of their emotions in a positive, empowered way.

There are activities and resources on our website.

Little Sticks Golf

Some of our pupils enjoyed a fantastic afternoon of Little Sticks Golf, improving our accuracy through participating in a range of golf challenges. We even met former World No. 1 Golfer, Lee Westwood 😊

Unfortunately, we were unable to take all 60 pupils, so the Y4 staff asked pupils for interest in this festival and they will ensure that every pupil will participate in something this academic year.

Cross Country Success! 🏆

Our 16 fastest long-distance runners proudly represented us at the South Tyneside Cross Country Tournament held at Temple Park. Eight boys and eight girls from Years 5 and 6 took on a tough two-mile course, competing against pupils from schools across the region.

They showed amazing determination, resilience, and sportsmanship throughout – we couldn't be prouder of every single one of them!

☀️ A special congratulations to Leo, who ran an outstanding race and finished 2nd overall! What an incredible achievement!

Well done, team - you were all fantastic! 🙌
